Honoring Our Veterans: Voices of Valor Brings Community Together Through Music and Healing

Music For All Seasons celebrates Veterans through an evening of storytelling, original music, and connection on the eve of Veterans Day.

On this Veterans Day, Music For All Seasons proudly honors and thanks all Veterans for their courage, sacrifice, and service to our nation.

Music For All Seasons welcomed Veterans, musicians, supporters, and community members to Honoring Our Veterans: Voices of Valor on November 10, 2025 — the eve of Veterans Day — at Hopewell Valley Vineyards for an evening celebrating the healing power of music and the voices of Veterans.

The event highlighted the transformative work of the organization's signature Voices of Valor initiative, which brings Veterans together through collaborative songwriting, creative expression, and community connection.

Throughout the evening, guests experienced live performances by internationally acclaimed touring musicians, composers, and Grammy-nominated musicians Julio Fernandez and Ron Haney, alongside Benny Harrison, Rob Harari, Ilya Stemkovsky, Matt Orlando, David Rimelis, and Jennifer Lampert.

A special highlight of the evening was the performance and celebration of original songs written and performed by Voices of Valor Veteran participants. Through the program, Veterans are provided opportunities to share their stories, build trust, and transform personal experiences into meaningful original music.

Veterans also shared personal reflections about the positive impact Voices of Valor has had on their lives, speaking about how the program created space for connection, healing, creative expression, and community through music.

The event also featured the public recognition of "We Made It Home (The Journey)," an original song created by Veterans participating in Voices of Valor sessions in New
