Professional Performances For Hope And Healing

April 14, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Voices of Change Expands Through New Partnership with Common Ground Grief Center

Music For All Seasons continues healing-centered songwriting program supporting children, teens, and families navigating grief and trauma.

Music For All Seasons is honored to partner with Common Ground Grief Center to continue and expand Voices of Change, a healing-centered music program supporting children, teens, and families navigating grief and trauma through songwriting, collaboration, and emotional expression.

Previously piloted through a partnership with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Union County, Voices of Change continues to grow by creating safe and supportive spaces where participants can express themselves creatively, build connections, and transform personal experiences into meaningful artistic work.

Beginning April 18, 2026, the program will launch at Common Ground Grief Center as part of Music For All Seasons' ongoing commitment to expanding access to healing-centered, community-based music programming.

Voices of Change is made possible through a dedicated team of facilitators and mentors who bring both professional expertise and genuine compassion to this work. Together, they create an environment grounded in empathy, creativity, dignity, and human connection.

The Voices of Change team includes:

- Ron Haney — Music Facilitator
- Mackenzie Koedding — Music Facilitator
- Ged Dagot — Psychology Mentor

Through songwriting, collaboration, and guided emotional expression, participants will have opportunities to write original songs, collaborate creatively with others, and
